SWEET SIDE

Laurie Alleman Weber is still making tiramisù even years after her time as Galileo's pastry chef, only now she serves it to go, along with dozens of other treats, at The Swiss Bakery & Pastry Shop (9536 Old Keene Mill Rd., Burke, 703.891.2744), which she owns with her baker husband. Another former pastry chef, Gianluigi Dellacchio, is whipping up something new with a line of premium ice creams called Dolci Gelati. Available now to the trade, his pines will, we hope, be on our store shelves soon.
